BlankLocation Class

String specialInfo : Variable which contains all the information of a location which is not classified as a special location or colour location.

Constructor public BlankLocation()
Default constructor public BlankLocation(String name, String specialInfo, int position) Constructor which takes the name of the property special info and position of the location and inserts it into the super's constructor - Location. Name : location name specialInfo : location special info position : locations position public String GetSpecialInfo()
Getter method to get the special info of a blank location - Used String because the variable SpecialInfo is a String type. Return the special info of a property